

The official journal of the Consortium of State Organizations for Texas Teacher Education

Call for Associate Editor, 2021

CSOTTE seeks applications for the Editorial Board of TxEP: Texas Educator Preparation, the official journal of the CSOTTE. The purpose of TxEP is to provide a venue for discussion and analysis of Texas educator preparation issues. The journal serves to disseminate research, topics pertinent to teacher preparation, best practices, and professional application. Submitted manuscripts undergo a double-blind review process and must be previously unpublished.

The 2021 TxEP edition will welcome an Associate Editor who is willing to serve a three-year term, progressing from Associate Editor (year 1) to Managing Editor (year 2) and then to an advisor role (year 3). The Managing Editor serves as an ex officio (non-voting) member of the CSOTTE Board and attends four board meetings (three in Austin and the summer board retreat-location TBD).

Preferred Qualifications

- Editing experience (e.g., assistant/associate editor, guest editor, reviewer)
- Organizational and communication skills
- Technology skills (editing, formatting, online posting)
- Resources and sufficient time to edit
- Established publication record
- Active member of a CSOTTE association

Guidelines for Submitting Applications

Interested applicants should submit the following items to journal@csotte.com. Specific questions can also be sent to 2021 Managing Editor, Elda Martinez, at eemartin@uiwtx.edu.

- Letter of interest that includes how your scholarship experiences and skills would be beneficial as editor
- Statement of support from either an administrator (department chair or dean) of the applicant's host institution/organization or a managing editor from a previous editorial team
- Current curriculum vitae

Review of applications will begin December 1, 2020.

Editorial duties will begin February 1, 2021.
